National membership dues are $255 annually plus a $65 initiation fee. Mention promotion code FEB12 on your application to receive this offer. This may not be combined with other offers. Some restrictions may apply.

“PRSA members have access to development and networking opportunities at the local, regional and national level that can help you flourish as a professional. You have to go out there and get them — attend events, volunteer at your local Chapter, learn at professional development workshops and add the social activities to your calendar. It’s all about the connections that you make. With PRSA, those connections are at your fingertips.”
